The National & Federal Recreation Lands Access Pass

The National Park Service is offering a free pass to federal recreation sites for people with disabilities who present documentation of disability status and ask for the free Access Pass. This life-long pass provides that person, along with three other adults, free admission to federal recreation sites around the country. For more details, visit www.nps.gov/findapark/passes.htm

Washington State Parks Access Pass

Washington State Parks also offers pass programs that reduce or waive camping, moorage and watercraft launch fees for limited-income senior citizens, disabled veterans, foster parents, and people with disabilities. For more information, visit www.discoverpass.wa.gov/131/Exemptions

Whatcom Transportation Authority

Regional Reduced Fare Permits - Riders with disabilities can get a Regional Reduced Fare Permit, valid throughout the Puget Sound. Riders who show this card upon boarding can pay a reduced cash fare on WTA fixed route buses (as well as on buses operated by over ten other transit agencies in the region.) One personal care attendant (PCA) can ride for free with a reduced-fare passenger. The reduced-fare passenger must have an RRFP with "PCA" on the card.
