

18 and Beyond:

A Roadmap for Parents of Adult Children with Disabilities

When your child turns 18 years old, they legally become an adult. This is an important time to consider their future – especially if they need additional care into adulthood. Learn more about:

- Developmental Disability Administration (DDA) eligibility and services such as Personal Care (PC), Medicaid Waivers, respite care, etc.
- Social Security Benefits (e.g. SSI, SSDI)
- Special Education including Transition Plans
- Employment including School to Work

Virtual Workshop via Zoom
Tuesday, April 22, 2025
6 – 8pm

Local Representatives

A panel of reps from the Developmental Disabilities Administration (DDA), Division of Vocational Rehabilitation (DVR), and The Arc will provide an overview of the adult service system and important steps to help keep you on track for a successful transition.

Interactive Session

After a presentation, we will open up the workshop to Q&A. Get your questions answered.
